CREATED EQUAL: America's Civil Rights Struggle

This initiative of the National Endowment for the Humanities uses the power of documentary films to encourage community discussion of America's civil rights history by:

- telling the stories of individuals,
- creating a deeper understanding of the ways Civil Rights have been obtained, and
- helping people understand Civil Rights history as central to the American story.

All programs are free and open to the public. More information can be found on the LME Library's website at melibrary.org or by visiting www.neh.gov/created-equal

EQUAL

"Created Equal: America's Civil Rights Struggle is made possible through a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, as part of its Bridging Cultures initiative, in partnership with the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History."
