Rebecca Caudill Young Readers' Book Award 2019

WHAT IS THE REBECCA CAUDILL YOUNG READERS' BOOK AWARD?

The Rebecca Caudill Young Readers' Book Award is an annual award given to the book voted most outstanding by students in grades four through eight in participating Illinois schools. The award is named in honor of Rebecca Caudill who lived and wrote in Urbana, Illinois, for nearly 50 years. The award is given in recognition for her literary talent and the universal appeal of her books which have touched the hearts of many children and young adults.

READ 2019 NOMINEES FOR A CHANCE TO WIN ONE OF 6 PRIZES!

HERE'S HOW TO ENTER TO WIN A MONTHLY PRIZE PACK

Starting in October we will feature 4 different 2019 Caudill nominees each month and post questions in the library and online based on those books. Submit your answers and a winner will be drawn monthly from correct answers to win a prize pack. You may even answer a previous month's questions! THAT'S 20 CHANCES TO WIN!!!

WHO CAN VOTE AND HOW?

Students in 4th-8th grade who read 3 or more books from the list of nominees...Yes, it's that simple! Did you read some of these titles already? That counts!!! Voting will be done entirely online this year starting February 1st and close on Tuesday, February 26th.

YOU COULD WIN THE WINNING CAUDILL BOOK!

Everyone that votes will be put in a drawing for a paperback copy of the 2019 Caudill winner!

BONUS: If you turn in this book list with at least 3 books marked as read, you get an extra entry in the book drawing!!!
